No. DSIIDC/ Insurance Backed Medical Scheme/Estt.

Dated :- 27.06.2022

Subject : Reimbursement of "unsettled expenses" under the Insurance Backed Cashless Medical Scheme policy year 2021-2022

The term of the present cashless medical scheme for the employees (including retired employees who have opted for this scheme) is expiring on 28.07.2022. Hence the beneficiaries of the Cashless Medical Scheme, are advised to furnish details of unsettled expenses over and above their entitled family floater cover positively by 8th July 2022 to the Personnel division, DSIIDC.

The term "unsettled expenses" is not used in the context of non-entitled expenses such as excess room charges, incremental deductions etc. and the non-payable expense (listed as per IRDA guidelines: refer to the list on website). Also the policy beneficiaries may kindly note, that such requests for reimbursement over and above the basic family floater cover is subject to scrutiny as per policy features and also availability of buffer funds. It may further be noted that if requests are not submitted within the stipulated time, the Corporation shall not be responsible for reimbursement of such claims.

(Sanjiv Kumar)
Chief Manager (P)

To all beneficiaries of the Insurance Backed Cashless Medical scheme.
